

CONFERENCE

FEBRUARY
10TH-11TH, 2026

SALA MULTIFUNZIONE
CAVALLERIZZA REALE
VIA VERDI, 9
TORINO

THE URGENCY OF TRANSGENERATIONALITY

FEBRUARY 10TH

MORNING

10-10.15 Institutional greetings

10.15-11 Giulia Pastorella (Member of the Italian Parliament for Azione)

11.00-11.30 Coffee break

11.30-12.15 Tiziana Andina (University of Turin) Why transgenerationality matters. From presentism to a processual view of society

12.15-13 Barbara Pozzo (University of Insubria) Future generations in climate litigation

Lunch

AFTERNOON

15.15-16 Sergio Filippo Magni (University of Pavia) The intuition of neutrality. A defence

16-16.45 Michael Rose (Leuphana University of Lüneburg) Institutional proxy-representation of future generations

16.45-17.15 Coffee break

17.15-18 Ella Saltmarshe (co-founder of Long Time Project) Cultivating transgenerational care with people, policies, and publics: getting practical

FEBRUARY 11TH

MORNING

10.00-10.45 Fausto Corvino (UC Louvain) Intergenerational climate justice and political feasibility

10.45-11.15 Coffee break

11.15-12 Joerg Tremmel (University of Tübingen) Constitutions and 'Generational turning points'

12.15-13 Eugenia Macchiavello (University of Genoa) Transgenerationality and finance: the evolution of financial regulation under the influence of sustainability considerations